Over 60 Years of Trusted Plumbing Service Across Staten Island & All 5 Boroughs

Since 1961, Louis L. Buttermark & Sons Inc. has built a legacy of excellence in plumbing — one job, one customer, and one borough at a time. Based in Staten Island and licensed across all five boroughs of New York City, we've handled everything from small residential repairs to major commercial overhauls for hospitals, schools, and landmarks like St. Patrick's Cathedral and the Staten Island Mall.

We're a family-owned, second-generation business now proudly operated by the three sons of our founder, Louis L. Buttermark. Though Lou is no longer with us, his principles of hard work, honesty, and craftsmanship continue to lead the way. When you hire us, you're getting a team of master plumbers — not subcontractors — who take your project personally and deliver it professionally.
