We take residential and commercial painting in New York, NY very seriously, and we offer a satisfaction guarantee that is included in all our services. Here's the list of services our painting company offers you:

Cabinet Refinishing – We only use the best cabinet paint options when you want to give a new charisma to your cabinets. Our matte finishes are especially beautiful and our NYC painters are known for leaving re-done cabinets stunning.

Cabinet Painting – Whatever paint color you want for your cabinet, our painters in New York know exactly how to leave any cabinet beautifully painted in the color of your choice.

Garage Floor Coating & Finishes – If you love your home, you're not too happy about the way your garage floor looks. We definitely appreciate that and know just how terrible a garage floor can become over time. The good news is that our NYC painting contractors create impressive epoxy floors that leave any garage good as new, adding value to your property.

Interior Painting – Whether we're talking about your entire house or apartment, or just the kitchen, living room, bedroom, basement, or another specific place in your home, our team of professionals specialize in interior painting in New York. Every interior painter in our team has many years of experience with New York City apartment paint projects.

Exterior Painting – Our house painters know that a house exterior says a lot about its owner. That's why our painters in NYC help you choose the best exterior paint options, we ensure you'll get a top quality painting experience, and that the exterior of your house will look impressive. In fact, it's not just your house exterior that our home painter team can help you with. Any residential external buildings, such as a barn or a garage, can also greatly benefit from this service.

Wallpaper Removal Service – When it comes to home renovations, wall coverings removal and wallpaper removal is a frequent necessity. Your wall and ceiling may require a technical intervention that will vary depending on the type of wallpaper used and how it was applied. Either way, our NYC apartment painters are also incredible wallpaper removal experts. Why? Because they're also top-of-the-game wallpaper installation experts, so they know the ins and outs of the entire wallpaper world.

Fence Painting & Deck Staining Services – Your deck and fence are extremely important extensions of your home. Our local painters know how to add the precise deck staining touch to make everything look different. Whether it is painting or staining, they'll leave your home exterior as spectacular as your home remodeling project demands.

Carpentry Services – You'll like to know that our services go well beyond applying interior and exterior paints. From drywall repair and sheetrock repair to drywall installation and sheetrock installation, along with working on hardwood floors or creating accent walls, we also have a team of carpenters that can handle any interior and exterior basic carpentry work you require.

Acoustic & Popcorn Ceiling Removal – What was once considered “in style” is now considered outdated and, often, not very aesthetical. It's only natural if you want to remove your popcorn ceiling and the good news is that our experts that serve New York can perfectly handle that. It's just important to determine if asbestos was used in the construction of your popcorn or acoustic ceilings so that we can proceed accordingly.

Eco-Friendly Painting Services – If you have special environmental concerns, our residential painter team can offer an eco-friendly interior painting job with eco-friendly interior paint. In fact, our NYC painting services can be eco-friendly both for your apartment painting and commercial painting requirements.

Health Care Facility Painting Services – It's also important to say that we're not just apartment painters. Along with painting an apartment, every painter in New York working with our team is also part of our group of commercial painters. Using the top paint for the job, our painters will have your healthcare facility completely painted, from start to finish.

Painting for Education Centers – Would you like to have our color consultant visiting your education center to offer professional insights on the perfect color for the fresh coat of paint your facility will receive? We'll be happy to help with expert recommendations regarding wall painting, paints, finishes, and other aspects to consider for the perfect outcome.

Gym & Fitness Center Painting – The right color and the right paint are crucial for your gym business, and we have just the painters NYC calls when a new gym or fitness center needs to be professionally painted.

Hospitality Painting Services – Our interior designers can help here. You'll want a place that feels welcoming, so they can offer advice in that regard. When it comes to hospitality painting, NYC doesn't come up with a better choice—as you'll see for yourself. Oh, and if cost guides your decision and you're worried about the budget, you'll like to know that our services are affordable and that we use different types of paints that accommodate different budgets.

Property Management Painting Services – If you're a property manager, we have great news for you: we have the apartment painters NYC turns to whenever an apartment in NYC needs painting. From simple paint jobs to sophisticated projects including a Venetian plaster or a faux finishing, there's a reason why we rank so well under the "apartment painting nyc" keyword on Google—because our painters are truly talented professionals!

Industrial Painting Services – Want to give a special coat of paint to your industrial facility? Over the years, we've provided interior painting services for businesses in different industries that have always left the companies that hired us really happy.

Religious Institution Painting – We treat your church as we treat the interior house of a family: with love, dedication to your preferences, and personalized attention. For a religious facility, we can offer really special ceiling painting options, special decorative paint, window treatment if you have special glasswork done on your windows, and door painting details that will add to the charisma of your temple.

Concrete Staining, Epoxy Floor Coatings, and Epoxy Finish Services – No concrete staining or epoxy coating work is too challenging for our team of experts.

Exterior Insulation and Finish Systems (EIFS) – We'll keep your business's EIFS well-maintained as to its two functions: as a decorative and as protective finish that keeps your business's exterior walls protect and insulated.

Commercial High-Durability Paint Coatings – Commercial and industrial facilities typically need an extraordinary paint coating that is able to withstand the heavy-duty usage that they endure. Our team of experts applies an extremely durable and strong paint coating adjusted to these locations.

Masonry Coating Repairs – There's no point in having remarkable masonry exterior finishes if they're not properly maintained and start eroding. That's not the kind of image you want people to have of your commercial property. Luckily, you can rely on our team to repair damaged masonry finishes in your property and to maintain these majestic details so that they go untouched and unaffected by the passage of time.

Line Striping in Business Parking Lots – Do you have a business parking lot and want to comply with existing regulations while also making your customers feel safe about using your parking lot? Easy: our team will apply bright and durable line strips, arrows, and fire lane areas, along with other options you may need.

Parapet Repairs for Your Commercial Property – Parapets are naturally exposed to the elements and they are the most likely parts of your commercial building's roof to crack and end up being damaged. The good news is that you can rely on us to repair your roof's parapet and to give it a coating treatment that will make it look and last as if it was new.

Durable Roof Coatings Application – Making your roof waterproof and more insulated from extreme weather conditions is the goal of this service. Our painters apply a quality roof coating that will help to maintain your roof strong for years to come, reducing the risk of having to partially or fully repairing or replacing your commercial building's roof.

Urethane Joint Expansion Sealing Solutions – We use urethane sealants on concrete surfaces due to the fact that they expand and contract with the concrete without running the risk of losing their properties, even if there are extreme weather variations.

T1-11 Siding Painting Services – Keeping your T1-11 siding painted and protected against moisture is extremely important to make it last significantly while also making it look good and as new. From the perspective of your customers, making the decision of hiring our T1-11 Siding Painting Services will be a wise one because they'll appreciate the neat aspect of your business's outer presentation.

Wood Rot Repair Services – There's no doubt that exterior wood objects and details on your home make it look extraordinary. However, without maintenance, this wood will start rotting from the effects of moisture and/or insects. Our Wood Rot Repair Services are designed to keep your property's wood well-maintained, beautiful, and ready to withstand many years more, which will also reflect on your home's value.

Waterproof Coatings For Commercial Properties – Water damage on commercial properties first starts slowly showing its effects, until it suddenly delivers a serious negative impact on structures and finishings. That's why we offer you a dedicated service that applies waterproof coatings to keep your commercial property protected from the rain, moisture and general excess water and its effects over time.

Color Consulting Services – This is an important service we offer to our customers because we know that, sometimes, independent and professional advice can do wonders to help you make a decision.

Drywall Repair Services – When drywall repair is what you need, you can rely on our drywall experts to install, repair, remove or replace any drywall surfaces you want to add or renew.

EPA RRP Lead Certified Services – We're an EPA RRP Certified painting company, which is especially important in case your home was built before 1978. In a nutshell, if we're talking about handling a lead-based paint project, we're technically prepared to handle it in a safe and certified way.

Crown Molding Installation Services – Do you require crown molding installation? We know the stunning effect it delivers to your walls when they meet the ceiling, and we offer the right service for that job.

Vinyl and Aluminum Siding Painting – Our team of professionals is also extremely skilled in repairing, replacing, or simply repainting any vinyl or aluminum siding of your business.

Commercial and Residential Stucco Painting and Repair Services –

We don't just deal with choosing the best house paint and interior home improvements. We also do extensive stucco repair and painting work and, whenever we see that repairing is no longer recommendable, we can also advise you to replace the stucco—a service that you can also rely on us to offer.

Free Quote & Painting Project Assessment

We promise we won't charge you for it, but we always prefer to visit your NYC apartment or home to assess the specifics of the painting project your place requires and to offer you a personalized price quote. We have many years of experience in painting NYC homes, so our assessment is swift and our quote is straightforward and transparent. On the other hand, we may also offer virtual estimates, which are not as detailed, but they're possible, in case you prefer to receive your free quote this way.

Affordable

You may think that all painting contractors NYC has listed have an extremely high cost of painting services. Most may well be aligned with that perception, but that's not our case. Our Manhattan painters only offer reasonably priced services. We also know that paint costs greatly influence the cost to paint a house, so we always seek to find a balance between quality paints and acceptable prices, namely by sourcing them from reliable suppliers with good prices.

Adjusted to Your Schedule

Are you worried about your residential painting project becoming a nuisance for you due to time constraints? Are you afraid to see your home office occupied for too long when you need it to get some work done? Our painting contractors in New York are there to help, not to get in your way. That's why we offer fast turnaround times as the most committed painters near you who really take your time very seriously.
