Lazy Susans Cleaning Service in New York City is reliable, trustworthy, affordable and convenient

Lazy Susan's Cleaning Service, Inc was founded quite by accident, by an Aussie guy, who needed extra cash to survive in New York City.

He arrived in the Big Apple in 2014 to launch two start-up companies which unfortunately didn't go to plan, and all the stories he'd heard about what this city can do to one's confidence soon became a reality.

Running out of finances, New York quickly became a very hard place to live. So, with very little savings left, he gave up his apartment, sold his furniture, moved in with friends, and turned to house cleaning to make cash – as he was determined to make it here.

His honesty, extremely high work ethic, obsession with perfection (because yes, cleanliness is next to Godliness) and typical Aussie humor quickly created such demand that he needed to hire additional cleaners. Crazy, right?

The rest is, as they say, history and hence the birth of Lazy Susan's Cleaning Service – ready to keep your house clean and organized, and you stress-free.

Like the invention of the Lazy Susan, we are here to serve you, to roll up our sleeves and clean the homes of busy New Yorkers like yourself. And yes, we know you're not lazy, but do you really want to spend your precious free time cleaning? We don't think so.

Lazy Susan's assures you a sparkly clean, organized home as often as you need it. On your schedule, and done to perfection by a meticulous, trustworthy staff who are as obsessed with a sparkling clean home as he was. We also do home organization, styling, Airbnb cleaning, de-cluttering and move-in/move-out services. We have now diversified into Commercial Cleaning in NYC.

So, book a home clean or other service online today and have a cheerful, reliable Lazy Susans professional at your door in no time, so that you can get on with your life. We got you covered!
